As had been already arranged, Remond remained beside the door to listen for any movement and ready to come to Remond's help if the need should arise. What need was it that he contemplated, and how was it to be met?

The light from the casement fell full on the sleeping man. He had pulled back the curtain, and so he knew it entirely unobserved, as he liked to be unobserved by the first glimpse of morning. He was not a dweller in the town whose nervous, overworked brain required unobtrusive darkness and solitude to rest. He had gone to sleep full of kindly, happy thoughts, rejoicing over his daughter's happiness and the realization of his own and his old friend's long cherished wish as to the marriage of their children, and planning what he would do for the poor wayward wife who had so strongly excited his interest and compassion. As he lay there he looked the very picture of an honest, healthy, happy man, a strange contrast to the villainous countenance of the man who now bent over him.

WOMEN.

Men living without women, by themselves, become savage and wild.

The foundation of our national character is laid by the mothers of the nation.

We cannot talk of superiority among spheres and duties that are alike essential.

Many a woman does the work of her life without being seen or noticed by the world.

The world knows nothing, or does not think of the fear, the pain, and the anxiety inseparable from the mother's office.

So sweet and so natural a thing is duty among women that men have come to regard a woman without it as strange, if not unhealthy.—G. Holland.

It is worth more than aught to a young man who is easily satisfied if he has in time, before he is old, a good wife, a good home, and a good position. When it strikes the delicate lines of a young man, it is not only a good thing, but a great one. It is a good thing to have a good wife, a good home, and a good position. It is a great thing to have a good wife, a good home, and a good position.

ROBERT BUCKLE
LAURENCE NOVEL

"What are you waiting time for?" That can be done as well as any other thing. It is not time to lose. The night is already far advanced, and we must be making haste from here to the other side.

Not at all! replied the other. "We are much safer here under the circumstances, and here, in the morning."

"Safer?" repeated the other. "Safer? Why what do you discover what has happened, we as strangers will be the first to be suspected. They will send for the guards, and then—well, it will be a matter of life and death."

"Then, time! No hard words, and as for the night, we will wait until the morning. You think yourself so clever, and you will listen to nobody's advice. Your infernal vanity will bring us to the wall."

"Then, time! No hard words, and as for the night, we will wait until the morning. You think yourself so clever, and you will listen to nobody's advice. Your infernal vanity will bring us to the wall."

THE SUMMER DEATH RATE.—The greatest epidemics of the summer of cholera, dysentery, and typhoid fever, is the increase in the death rate of all the leading cities during the summer months. The cause of this is not too much care of their habits of life during the hot season, and particularly in the case of children. Something should be done to steady the structure.

A supply of Perry Davis' Pain Killer should always be on hand, for it is the only medicine that can be relied on to relieve all kinds of aches, pains, and sprains. A teaspoonful will cure any ordinary case; but in severe attacks it is occasionally necessary to take a full dose. It is sold in bottles of 50c and $1.00, at all drug stores.

When we decided to add the manufacture of carriages, phaetons, etc., to our business, we immediately got under construction a few of each. As we decided to place no value on the market which is not a 1st class article, we have been successful in producing what we aimed at. We think we have succeeded, and we now have a large stock of carriages, phaetons, etc., on hand, and we are now in a position to supply the public with the best material and greatest care.

Mr. Tarte offers no Explanation, but Leaves the Matter to the Government—Mr. Foster Intervenes and Will be Hearing the Atlantic Coast Line.

OTTAWA, July 13.—Mr. Tarte yesterday afternoon made his long-expected charges against the judges of the Province of Quebec. He declared that for the past twenty years there had been a veritable reign of terror in Quebec on account of the judges having been chosen exclusively from a particular party.

Mr. Tarte's charges were against Judges Bouché, Ouellet and Teller. Judge Bouché is accused of partiality in the case of the Atlantic Coast Line.

A Lesson for All Children in the Manner

Belleville July 8.—Rev. Dr. Talmage, who is now making the Antiochian, on the subject for his sermon through the press of the "Rustic in the Palace," the last Friday, June 29, 1894. I will go and see him before I die.

Joseph had long since passed the hundred year mark. In those three people were distinguished for longevity. In the century of the great, the great men, the most celebrated physician in his time, took so little of his own time that he lived to one hundred and forty years. A man of undoubted virtue, and who lived in England, was that he remembered an event one hundred and fifty years ago. He lived to be one hundred and forty years old.

Among grand old people of whom we have heard, was Jacob, the shepherd of

NO ARBITRATION COMMISSION

The Commission Appointed by President Cleveland Has No Power Beyond Its Jurisdiction.

CHICAGO, July 14.—Eugene V. Debs, who ordered the great railroad strike, made one more ineffectual attempt looking for a settlement yesterday. He drew up a formal proposition to the general managers of the railroads, and presented it to the board of directors of the American Railway Union.

The proposition was a long one, and it was not in season, but after individual members had been consulted, it was turned to Mayor Hopkins without answer.

Whether Palester and Koeb's peculiar mode of treatment will ultimately prevail or not, their theory of blood contamination is the correct one, though not original. It is on this theory that Dr. J. C. Ayer, of Lowell, Mass., nearly fifty years ago, formulated Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

It is one of the ugliest and most painful things in the world. Do not use acids or other caustic preparations, and don't cut a hole in your foot. It is simply to be removed by the use of the famous "Pain Expeller," which has been tried, and the several attacks have been cured by it. It is invariably brought relief to the sufferer. AN ACHING HEAD.

Dear Sir, I had been suffering from an aching head for the past three years, and had tried every remedy, but to no avail. I then tried B.B.C. and in a single day I was cured. I could think of, but it did me no good. My cousin said I must because it is the best medicine ever made, and I took three bottles of it, with great result. It cured me of my aching head, and I think B.B.C. Blood Bitters, both for headache and all other ailments, is the

Dear Sir—I had been suffering from an aching head for the past three years, and had tried every remedy known to me, but without success. I then tried B.B.B. and lo! it did me no good. My cousin said I must try B.B.B.

Because it is the best medicine ever made, and I took three bottles, it cured me. I think B.B.B. blood purifier is the best in the world, and am glad to recommend it to all my friends.

Mr. Alston, piano tuner for A. & B. Northman, Toronto, is now here. Leave from Belleville at 10 o'clock.

Fred Peck, who was arrested on Monday last for carrying a revolver and threatening to do bodily harm, has been sentenced to 6 months imprisonment.

Patrick Killeah, a shoemaker, 75 years of age, shot himself at Bradford Wednesday night, and died yesterday afternoon. He had come from Hastings.

The many friends in North Hastings of James Clark, Esq., Mayor Magistrate, Bancroft, will hear with regret of the death of this worthy man, who died on the 18th July, after a lingering illness.

Jacob Finkle had put in a very handsome car automatic and an engine and boiler, which was being shown to the appearance of his place as well as attract the public.

"I was prostrated with a severe blood complaint," writes Ernest Scott, Esq., Bath, Me. "After finally trying a number of remedies, I was finally induced to take Hood's Pills. I had scarcely taken two boxes when I was completely cured."

Whether Parker and Koch's peculiar mode of treatment will ultimately prevail or not, their theory of blood contamination is the correct one, though not original. It was on this theory that Dr. J. C. Ayer, Lowell, Mass., nearly fifty years ago, formulated Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Consumption, cheer up! You are not going to die, if you take Miller's Kidney and Ood Liver Oil, "the blood that cures" coughs, colds, bronchitis and the first stage of Consumption. Every bottle warranted. No city taste like others. In bottles, 50c, $1.00, and $2.00.

From present indications there may be no meeting of the deacons for several weeks to come. It would be better for the age of all factors to continue the market in Campbellford. There is a good demand for cheese, and buyers will pay as much for it here as elsewhere. If the market is broken up a drop may immediately follow.—Campbellford Herald.

Mr. Lowry, hog buyer, from Peterborough, was in this section last week. He purchased in all 170 hogs: 60 from Mr. Eubank, Chatham, 20 from Mr. Carr, 60 from George Eastbrook, and the remainder from farmers. He was paying from $4.25 to $4.50 per hundred, and was very good. These hogs were sent to the Matthews Packing House, Peterborough, where they are now slaughtering between 2,000 and 3,000 hogs per week.—Times News.

No time is more severe from attacks of painful and dangerous disorders of the stomach, such as cholera, cholera morbus, diarrhoea, cramps, dysentery, &c. But these complaints are particularly common during the hot season, when the blood is impure to assist them. Perry Davis' Pain-killer is a remedy that has never failed, and which the severest attacks have been cured by it. It leaves no evil effects, but invariably brings relief to the sufferer. Every respectable druggist in the country sells Perry Davis' Pain-killer. Large size, half bottle, price 50c.
